

NOTABLE STATISTICS

Sourced from Surveyed Parents & Caregivers

- 60% of Louisiana parents and caregivers surveyed believe their child has received or will receive SE in school, when in reality, they likely have/will not.
- 89% of parents and caregivers surveyed want their child to learn self-esteem building and coping skills.
- 84% want them to learn about stress and how it affects the body.
- 90% want them to learn about bullying as it pertains to sexual health.
- 87% want them to learn about healthy and unhealthy relationships and signs of abuse.
- 90% want them to learn about rape, date rape, and what to do if someone is sexually assaulted.
- 84% of parents and caregivers surveyed agreed the basics of puberty and reproduction, which includes pregnancy and birth, should be taught at an age appropriate level.
- Parents and caregivers want to be certain that their children are learning age-appropriate and factual sex education from trained professionals

For more information on these topics and others, please visit GeauxTalk.org/.